Provider Profile

Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

MARC: Community Resources is a not for profit agency that provides supports and services to adults and children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Founded in 1955, MARC has a long history of providing individualized, community based services. MARC is a grassroots agency that also has a strong reputation as an advocate for people with disabilities and their families. MARC's mission is to empower adults and children with intellectual and developmental disabilities to realize their dreams and make choices about their lives. To honor and help fulfill these dreams MARC provides people with choices for housing, employment and social/recreational life.

MARC: Community Resources Person Centered Planning process is exemplary and ensures that each and every unique individual receives the type of unique and individualized services that will enable them to succeed and realize their life goals. Our blended programs are individually tailored and can include blending of community experience, volunteer activities, leisure opportunities and paid work. MARC supports individuals with a wide variety of disabilities with customized these services. From group to individualized employment to habilitation to seniors, MARC provides each individual with a unique blend of services tailored to meet their needs. Similarly, MARC's living arrangements are designed to support each individual in a way to not only meet their unique needs but to support them to be as independent as possible. In addition, MARC provides adult recreation, Saturday for Kids recreation, self-advocacy (MARC Guardian Angels), PPT and other school supports. MARC: Community Resources works with local school districts to provide transition services prior to entry to adult programs. Respect and dignity are guideposts to all supports and services.
